

THE COLLABORATIVE

SHOULD GOVERNMENT POLICY AROUND VIOLENCE PREVENTION IN ILLINOIS CHANGE COURSE?

January 25, 2019
The Chicago Club – Daniel Burnham Room

AGENDA

- 8:30 a.m. - 9:05 a.m. Registration & Refreshments
- 9:05 a.m. - 9:10 a.m. Welcome and Introductions
- 9:10 a.m. - 9:30 a.m. A Conversation on the Pritzker-Stratton Plan to Address Gun Violence and Criminal Justice Reform
Featured Speaker: Lieutenant Governor Juliana Stratton
- 9:30 a.m. - 11:15 a.m. What Effect Has the Politics of Fear Around Gangs, Drugs and Guns Had on Justice Policy and Community Safety?
Introductory Speech: John Pfaff, Professor of Law at Fordham University
Moderated by Jonah Newman from The Chicago Reporter
Panelists:
Alden Loury, Senior Editor of Race, Class and Communities at WBEZ
Senator Robert Peters, Illinois State Senate, 13th District
John Pfaff, Professor of Law at Fordham University
Brendan Shiller, Partner at Shiller Preyar
Tanya Watkins, Director at Southside Organized for Unity and Liberation
- 11:15 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. How Do Efforts to Improve Law Enforcement Outcomes and Reform the Justice System Fit Together?
Featured Speaker: Illinois Attorney General Kwame Raoul
- LUNCH WILL BE SERVED –
- 11:30 a.m. - 12:45 p.m. What Has Government's Approach to Gun Violence Been Missing?
Moderated by Evan F. Moore from the Chicago Sun-Times
Panelists:
Dr. Daniel Cooper, Director of Research, Metropolitan Planning Council
Dr. Toni Irving, Executive Director, Get IN Chicago
Jennifer Keeling, Director of Strategic Partnerships, Chicago CRED
Senator Sue Rezin, Illinois State Senate, 25th District
Representative Justin Slaughter, Illinois House of Representative, 27th District
- 12:45 p.m. - 12:50 p.m. Next Steps for the Collaborative